

The Friends Are Installing Their First “Little Free Library”

To anyone not familiar with Little Free Libraries anyone can take a book or two but please replace with any book to keep it full. It does not have to be the one that was taken. The Little Free Library is not a book drop for Fairport Harbor Public Library. Books checked out from the library should be returned to the library.

The Hildegarden at 630 Plum St. hosts the first Little Free Library. Other are planned around town.
